

From the business section of the Minneapolis StarTribune on June 11,2010

“figuratively speaking

- 21 Percentage of business owners with two to 10 employees who are earning more than they had hoped to make when they started their companies.
- 58 Average number of hours these small-business owners say they put in every week toward their business

Source: SnagAJob.com”